marriage moment

The Wall of Denial is the third in the series of the five most common walls built in marriages. When absolving yourself of any responsibility in a conflict, you admit you have lost power to change a situation. Perhaps your spouse is more at fault, but you must take responsibility even if it means "setting proper boundaries, learning to say no, and getting better at expressing your desires and needs." Taking responsibility does not always mean taking the blame. It's learning how to "take action toward resolution," and not shifting all responsibility onto your spouse. "If you allow yourself to build the wall of denial, it will prevent you from healing and having healthy relationships."

Help support the Crossroads Church/Kids Hope USA Partnership at Plymouth's Jefferson Elementary School!

Project Spotlight is a charitable giving campaign that allows nominated local charities, non-for-profits and community projects to earn funding from Beacon Credit Union. Community members have submitted their local projects and organizations that they feel deserve support. The voting began on August 1st in each community to support their favorite organization. With your help and participation, when the voting ends at the end of September, nearly $20,000 will be donated by BCU, benefiting 33 charitable organizations and projects in NE Indiana! ($1,750 split between the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in 12 communities).

The Crossroads Church/Kids Hope USA partnership with Jefferson Elementary School is one of the nominees for this campaign—but we need you to vote daily for our project to be one of the top vote getters in Marshall County!

Voting Rules: Voting is easy; however, there are a few rules to be aware of:

- You may vote one time per day, using your email address to identify you. Email addresses will be verified prior to final vote count.
You may vote in multiple communities (one time in each community per day).
Votes will be reviewed for authenticity and fairness. Excessive voting from the same IP address will result in removal of all votes from that IP address.

How to vote: At local BCU branches or online--

- Enter this link into your computer browser and press "enter"-- http://www.beaconcu.org/project-spotlight-vote-marshall-county/
Review the list on nominees from Marshall County and find the Crossroads Church/Kids USA listing. Click to 'vote' for our project and click Submit Vote at the bottom of the page to finish voting.
Set up reminders to vote again each day for our project thru 9/30!
Paper ballots will be at the Information Kiosk for you to pick up if you prefer to vote this way. Drop them off at Beacon Credit Union on Oak Drive.

You're invited to join us for our Fall Women's Bible Study! We will grow in biblical literacy and discover how JESUS is the key to satisfaction by learning the crucial significance behind each of His I AM statements.

Tuesday Mornings 9:15 am - 11:15 am
OR
Tuesday Evenings 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm
