GRASPING
GOD'S DESIGN
FOR MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

A stylized tree with a blue canopy and white roots on a dark green background. The tree is positioned in the upper left corner, with its roots extending downwards into the dark green area. The background is a dark green color with a subtle pattern of white swirls and dots. The text is centered in the middle of the image.

There is not a single couple who gets married planning for divorce

Why?

Where does the idea of marriage come from?

Why is it something we so naturally desire?

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:1 (ESV)

When was the last time you heard someone say,
“Because of marriage, there must be a God”
